Plaintiff, proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, brought this action alleging violations of his constitutional rights by Defendants. On April 1, 2022, Defendant filed a motion for summary judgment. [ECF No. 15]. As Plaintiff is proceeding pro se, the court entered an order pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975), advising him of the importance of the motion and of the need for him to file an adequate response by May 5, 2022. [ECF No. 16]. Plaintiff was specifically advised that if he failed to respond adequately, the motion may be granted. Plaintiff was permitted multiple extensions, after which his response was due September 19, 2022.

Notwithstanding the specific warning and instructions set forth in the court's Roseboro order, Plaintiff has failed to respond to Defendant's motion. As such, it appears to the court that he does not oppose the motion and wishes to abandon his claims against Defendant. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff is directed to advise the court whether he wishes to continue with this case and to file a response to the motion by October 6, 2022. Plaintiff is further advised that if he fails to respond, the undersigned will recommend this case be dismissed for failure to prosecute. See Davis v. Williams, 588 F.2d 69, 70 (4th Cir. 1978); Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
